

Empowering REFORM TEENS

THE COLLAB is a teen-powered, community-driven retreat for all teens in the Reform Jewish Youth Movement in grades 9-12. Here, teens build a community that supports their visions, encourages them to share their talents, and creates space for them to share lifelong skills with each other. Whether this is your first event or your 50th, all are welcome! Register now for NFTY Collab 2025, November 7-10, at URJ Greene Family Camp in Bruceville, TX. is a six-week virtual intensive that empowers leaders in grades 9-12 to create change in their communities and live out the Jewish imperative for social justice. With guidance from experienced coaches, fellows design and implement their own projects as they develop valuable skills.

RAC TEEN JUSTICE FELLOWSHIP

Learn more about this opportunity to build a brighter, more equitable future for all!

TEEN JEWS OF COLOR FELLOWSHIP

invites teens in grades 11-12 with a diverse range of racial identities to join this transformative opportunity to explore and engage with all their intersecting identities, form community, cultivate leadership skills, and work with mentors to create meaningful projects based on what they've learned.

Learn about this opportunity to build lifelong community.

L'TAKEN SOCIAL JUSTICE SEMINARS

empower 1,500 Jewish teens every year to impact policy and share their views with Capitol Hill and Canadian decision makers. Through weekend-long seminars, teens explore public policy and the Jewish values that inform the Reform Movement's advocacy around these issues. Check with your local congregation to sign up for a cohort.

MADRICHIM FELLOWSHIP (in partnership with ARJE) is our newest learning lab, designed to help teen madrachim (guides) be more effective in the classroom and create a more inclusive world. From October-May, fellows in grades 8-9 will learn classroom management, build inclusive environments, and cultivate leadership skills to help everyone feel a sense of belonging. Learn more about this new fellowship!

ISRAEL TEEN FELLOWSHIP (US-BASED)

is a six-month program based in North America, where teens learn about current events, social justice, and Israeli culture while organizing around Israel in their communities. Learn more about this immersive program, which runs October 19-March 22!

Our young people are the lifeblood of our Movement, providing the energy and growth that will undoubtedly ensure a vibrant future.

*Rabbi Rick Jacobs
URJ President*

Study in Israel

ISRAEL TEEN FELLOWSHIP (ISRAEL-BASED) is a transformative experience for teens who want to explore Israel, grow as leaders, and make a difference in their communities. Fellows receive a $15,000 scholarship for a semester at Heller High in Israel. After they return, they work with a mentor to design and implement an organizing project. Fill out our interest form to learn more!

URJ HELLER HIGH is a semester-long academic program in Hod Hasharon, Israel for teens in grades 10-12. Students immerse themselves in Israeli history, culture, and Reform Jewish values as they build lifelong connections. Learn more at hellerhigh.org!

YALLAH! ISRAEL provides custom, educational Reform Jewish summer experiences for all teens to explore Israel and Eastern Europe through their interests. Learn more about next summer's epic journeys through Yallah! Israel's website!

Learn about all these programs and more, including multi-regional events at camp, at nfty.org/yearround